

About YP Jam

The YP Jam is an exciting annual conference in which young people interested in giving and serving can build skills, network, and learn to develop new ideas about addressing community needs. The conference encourages generous living and is a program of the Youth Philanthropy Initiative of Indiana (YPII), which works to grow lifelong philanthropists who give their time, talent and treasure for the common good. This year's YP Jam offers a variety of workshops, community building, national and local speakers, and entertainment — you'll be actively involved from the moment you arrive until you head back home! Don't miss the YP Jam 2007!

Who Should Attend?

We encourage teams of youth and adults committed to giving and serving who serve as equal partners to attend the YP Jam.

- Those already involved in community service/action
- Those wanting to learn more about youth philanthropy
- Youth philanthropy councils/clubs
- Faith-based youth service programs
- Community-based youth service programs
- Youth As Resources boards
- United Way Youth Fund campaign members
- Youth Pods or Youth Advisory Councils
- Key Club or National Honor Society members

My Service Projects

Putting community service in action, we will be actively involved in giving and serving with community organizations helping youth and their families in Franklin. Plan on "getting your hands dirty" to make Indiana a better place for all young citizens!

My Great Grants/ Super Service Activites

Before you come to the YP Jam, talk with your group and put together a plan to share creative service/grant ideas with other Hoosiers! Create a display board and be prepared to make a two-minute presentation of your community's best grant funded or super service activity. YP Jam Planning Team will select the "greatest grant/super service activity," and cash prizes will be awarded to continue to do great community service work!
